Biographical Synopsis

James E. Jordan Jr. has served as Pastor of the Refreshing Spring Church of God in Christ in Riverdale, Maryland since September 1995. Additionally he has served as the Superintendent of the A.D. Headen District in the Washington D.C. Jurisdiction. He also served as Pastor of the Holy Grace COGIC in Martinsburg, West Virginia for nearly four years. On January 8, 2011, Pastor Jordan was appointed District Superintendent of the G. E. Patterson Memorial District under the Greater Maryland First COGIC Jurisdiction. Pastor Jordan is committed to equipping the saints for the work of the ministry by focusing on the Whole Man – spirit, soul and body.

This vision is fulfilled through the development of satellite ministries serving congregations in Clinton, College Park and Owings Mills Maryland. Under his leadership churches have been established in the District of Columbia and Laurinburg, NC. Refreshing Spring owns and operates the Refreshing Spring Professional Office Building, which houses many ministries of the church; in addition to local businesses. Pastor Jordan serves as Chairman Emeritus of the Board of the SEED Community Development Corporation, and oversees the development of the Spring of Life Wellness Center and Refreshing Spring Family Life Center. He serves on the executive board of the Collective Banking Group of Prince George's County and the Riverdale Ministerial Alliance. In addition; Refreshing Spring successfully operates a Ministerial Certification program facilitated through the Refreshing Spring Bible Institute.

Pastor Jordan is a father and grandfather. He resides in Maryland with his lovely wife of over 40 years Mother Wilhelmina Irene Joy Jordan.
