Volunteers of America Chesapeake...

...was founded in 1896 by Maud & Ballington Booth, son of Salvation Army founder William Booth, to go where needed to help those in need. 114 years later our legacy of faith-based outreach continues through the footprint of 26 programs in Maryland, Virginia and D.C. serving the homeless, aging, individuals with intellectual disabilities, mental illnesses, those recovering from substance abuse addictions and those in our community corrections facilities. Volunteers of America Chesapeake is one of 38 Volunteers of America affiliates across the country serving more than 2 million people in 400 communities.

Volunteers of America Chesapeake's mission is to inspire self-reliance, dignity, and hope through human services.
