Volunteers of America Chesapeake's Residential Program Center in Arlington Partners with Bruegger's Bagels to Raise Money for Early Recovery Unit

What: Volunteers of America Chesapeake's Residential Program Center in Arlington, Va., is partnering with Bruegger's Bagels to raise money for its Early Recovery Program on Thursday, Feb. 10. That day, the popular café and bakery will donate 15 percent of all purchases to the homeless services facility made by customers presenting a customized flyer when they place their order. The flier can be printed on Volunteers of America Chesapeake's website (www.VOAchesapeake.org )

Volunteers of America Chesapeake's Residential Program Center provides three crucial services – non-medical detoxification, substance abuse recovery and homeless services for single adults – all under one roof. Since its inception in 1994, Volunteers of America Chesapeake's Residential Program Center is the only 24-hour program of this caliber in Arlington County. The Early Recovery Program is a 90-day substance abuse residential treatment program for those in need of a more intense level of treatment. Clients in the early stages of recovery are taught skills in how to manage their lives, seek support, and appropriately participate in day to day activities without using and abusing substances.
